

LIXI@Work

New Newsletter Format

Now that LIXI 2.0 has been announced and the new standards are being rolled out across the industry, we thought it timely to make some improvements to our industry communication. We are going to communicate with our Members more frequently with a greater focus on collaboration. LIXI@Work will offer abbreviated content while directing subscribers to our most valuable asset; our website. LIXI@Work will now be released the second Tuesday of each month, starting today. We trust the industry will be supportive of these changes and as always, we welcome your feedback.

Conversation Series - February 18

Following the announcement and release of CAL 2.0 in November 2013, the first LIXI Conversation Series of 2014 will focus on the concept of 'electronic guidebooks'. This event is FREE for LIXI Members to attend. For more information, and to register, visit this page.

Loan Origination Excellence Conference - February 19-20

LIXI is pleased to announce that LIXI CEO, Erik Fenna, will be speaking at the Loan Origination Excellence conference to be held in Sydney on February 19th and 20th. One of the agenda items is improving collaboration between the back end of operations and outsourced service providers; an area where LIXI is passionate about improving efficiencies. For information visit the event website here.

LIXI 2.0 Fundamentals

To support community education in regards to LIXI 2.0, LIXI is developing a new training and educational session, "LIXI 2.0 Fundamentals". Initially being held in Sydney, this session can be rolled out to organisations privately and held in other Australian capital cities as interest is expressed. To be kept up to date on developments and training dates, visit our Training & Events page.

New Change Management Protocol

LIXI is very pleased to announce a new Change Management Protocol for CAL 2.0. This protocol has been implemented to address all CAL 2.0 change requests and recommendations with a high level of responsiveness as required by the industry. Powered by JIRA, the industry can have confidence in this familiar industry tool to manage the reporting and tracking of CAL 2.0 change requests.

All CAL 2 change requests must be lodged via the LIXI website here.

Bank 3.0

Banking is now something we do and author Brett King explains the many changes and innovations within lending in the last decade as well as what he believes are the key issues moving forward. This book is a must read for anyone in the lending industry; for your convenience, a full book review is located on the LIXI website here.

LIXI Glossary - Feedback Encouraged

Have you had a look at the newly released LIXI Glossary yet? If not, it's time! Industry participants are the true experts regarding lending industry definitions and terminology, what the terms mean to your organisation and how they are really used. The LIXI Glossary supports standardization of industry terms while allowing feedback on the actual definition. Participate in this important industry platform and have your say!
